

Ethics in Practice

Mountain Plains MHTTC and ATTC Collaboration

March 18, Thursday
9:00 – 12:30 CT | 8:00 – 11:30 MT

Topics to be covered:

- Boundary issues/dual relationships
- Scope of practice
- Safe and ethical use of technology
- Appropriate referral for treatment
- Being an ethical professional
- How to represent yourself
- Culture of treatment within an ethical context

Register for this FREE training:

https://und.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_xZwE3LFTS5u0XNKIOcIUCA

Audience:

Mental health workforce to include social workers, addiction counselors, and other professional counselors

Presenter: Dr. Mita M. Johnson, EdD, LPC, MAC, SAP

Dr. Mita M. Johnson has been practicing in the world of counseling, and addictions counseling, for the past 30 years. Dr. Johnson has extensive experience as an addiction counselor and brings that expertise and leadership in advancing ethical practice. She is the President of NAADAC and is a member of the Executive Committee. Her academic background includes an Ed.D in counselor education and supervision. Dr. Johnson's credentials include Licensed Professional Counselor, Masters Addiction counselor, and Substance Abuse Professional.

Mountain Plains (HHS Region 8)

MHTTC

Mental Health Technology Transfer Center Network
Funded by Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration

Mountain Plains ATTC

ATTC