

Essential Conversations

Are you seeking knowledge for a family member, friend, significant other, or simply wanting to increase your own personal knowledge?

If you have answered “yes” to any of these questions, it is our hope that Essential Conversations on Substance Use maybe just what you’re looking for!

This podcast series, sponsored by the Mid America Addiction Technology Transfer Center and funded by the Substance Abuse Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), is intended for anyone seeking basic information about substance use. This series will address stigma, highlight appropriate language, provide education on how to determine if substance use is becoming a challenge, and address misconceptions of substance use.
